

Wrap Around Standards	Prevention with Community Wraparound Team	Outreach & Access	Assessment & Intake	Goal Setting & Intervention Planning
Building Family Capacity	Community and school programs for children and youth that build resilience to peer pressure and substance abuse.	In-home resources for children Family partners and youth mentors in relationship with families.	Family support team formed. Focus on involvement of whole family .	Involvement of entire family in determining strengths and resources for family safety and a family services plan.
Array of Services	Community center for teens, sports activities, and after-school programs. Program outreach and promotion about resources in the community in Spanish and English. Program information for children and youth that protects Spanish language usage.	Information on programs in Spanish and English. Forms in Spanish and English. Grassroots groups receive encouragement, support, and training for in-home and outreach services.	Family focus using family development domains Intake forms that include family issues and strengths. Dual assessment for protection and family strengths. Bi-lingual and bi-cultural worker/client communication	Use time and relationship building with family. Integrate substance abuse services into family services plan. Include paid family partners in services plan. Common format to share cases across agencies, i.e. family services plan.
Community Education And Promotion	Family education on wellness with a community media campaign. Latino celebrations with community – wide participation. Inform people in rural areas about services.	Multicultural activities for children that promote social competence, problem-solving skills, autonomy, and sense of purpose.	Agency training and staff sensitivity to family - centered approach.	Cross training and case conferences among agencies. Fact-based education on substance abuse, harm reduction model.

Wrap-Around Standards	Informal and Formal Resources	Counseling and Therapy	Monitoring of Service Provision	Interagency Coordination
Building Family Capacity	Information and skills increased for connecting family to community resources. Family strengths awareness provides motivation to achieve goals.	Time for relationship building to allow family needs to drive the process.	Measurement of family development outcomes. Family is aware of their progress.	Cross-system, agency team that identifies wraparound families.
Array of Services	One-stop locations to insure access of services. Peer mentors to teach children how to handle peer pressure. Referring agencies provide adequate information on family situation. Family stays involved in wraparound throughout at-risk status.	Individualized services upon demand without wait listing. Family participates in domestic violence and substance abuse programs. Facilities are safe, allow for sensitivity to client needs and fears, and assures confidentiality.	Follow-up with clients and agencies when referrals are made. Common database following family progress.	Flexible funding to assist families with non-categorical needs. Networking practices in place to assure agencies work together for benefit of family. Common forum to share cases. Website with links to resources and to database.
Community Education	Community events with a diversity of languages promoting activities and services. More SSL classes.	Treatment providers receive wraparound training.	Family achievements are made available to general public.	Agencies have a clear role for community education.